Vineyard

Located in Bento Gonçalves, the wine capital of Brazil, which sits at an altitude of just over 610 metres.

Vale dos Vinhedos covers 82 square kilometres in part of the Pedrinho River basin.

Viticulture

Grapes harvested from single block at the highest point of vineyard (+/-570m) in the Santa Lúcia area of the Vale dos Vinhedos.

Winemaking

Fermentation in stainless steel tanks at low temperatures, with the addition of selected yeasts. There was no malolactic fermentation and no oak ageing. Battonages while in stainless steel tank.

Tasting Notes

Straw yellow in colour, this wine brings aromas of citrus fruits, guava and lemon balm, with a refreshing and persistent finish. Palate is rich and broad.
