

AGUSTÍN LANÚS SUNAL SALVAJE MALBEC 2018

REGION: Salta, Argentina

APPELLATION: Calchaquí Valley

YIELD (HI/Ha): 40hl/ha

BLEND: 100% Malbec

WINEMAKER: Agustín Lanús

VINEYARD

Single vineyard located at 2,400 masl in Pucara, Angastaco, Salta Province. The vineyard has sandy-clay soils, permeable and uses drip irrigation. Only 2 hectares.

VITICULTURE

Handpicked manual harvest.

WINEMAKING

This wine is uninfluenced by wood. It is fermented in concrete tanks with controlled temperature, cold pre-fermentation for 4 days at 10°C. Only indigenous yeasts with a minimum of metabisulfite added and no other additives. Natural malolactic, aged one year in concrete eggs. Unfiltered.

TASTING NOTES

Deep black colour that darkens the glass. In the mouth, cranberry and raspberry is prominent, as well as beets and fig jam. The palate is mouth filling with juicy and silky tannins. Pure fruit and expression of terroir.

www.agustinlanuswines.com

CLOSURE: Cork

ORGANIC: No

BIODYNAMIC: No

VEGETARIAN: Yes

VEGAN: Yes