VINEYARD

Two different vineyards in Maldonado, on the east coast of Uruguay: Garzón and Cerro del Toro. Both in close proximity to the Atlantic Ocean, with stony calcareous soils.

Temperatures heavily moderated by the Atlantic influence.

VITICULTURE

Sustainable production: using management techniques focused on achieving qualitative results with the least impact on the environment, ensuring the safety of our products and the safety of employees.

WINEMAKING

100% hand harvested, whole bunch press, and only 50% of the press juice used.

Fermentation with selected yeast at low temperatures 14-16°C.

Work on the lees to achieve roundness and creaminess.

No malolactic.

9 months in French oak 2.000 litres founders.

TASTING NOTES

Light clear golden colour.

Delicate mineral nose, underripe pears and granny smith apples, and a touch of butter. Textured palate, with refreshing acidity, very long finish.

Delicious, refined and joyful.
